

The Architectural Conservancy
of Ontario

The
OAKVILLE HISTORICAL SOCIETY
The
BRONTE HISTORICAL SOCIETY
And the
TRAFALGAR TOWNSHIP HISTORICAL SOCIETY

are holding a Free evening information session for those interested in heritage preservation:

Proactive Heritage Conservation

Walton Memorial Church
2489 Lakeshore Rd. W. , Bronte
June 24, 7 - 9 p.m.

Harry Barrett Chair of Heritage Oakville will speak about Problems with Heritage Issues and Planning Issues.

Architect Catherine Nasmith, president of the ACO, will speak about the benefits for Oakville residents in forming a local branch.

The ACO is a charitable organization in its 75th year, with nineteen branches in Ontario working to preserve our architecturally significant buildings and places of natural beauty.

Ms. Nasmith will speak specifically about the added protection provided by heritage conservation districts.

For further information visit the ACO web site <http://www.arconserv.ca>

or contact

Andy Bruce tel. 905-844-7733 or asbdesign@sympatico.ca